DETAILED ACTION

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: on page 2 – line 13, “clip” should be plural. Additionally, on page 3 – line 14, “is” should be –are--.

Appropriate correction is required.

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Re claim 1, the phrase “such as a vehicle body” in line 3 renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d). The phrase should be deleted. Additionally, “the longitudinal direction” bridging lines 11 and 12 lacks clear antecedent basis and could be written as –a longitudinal direction—for clarity. Finally, “the lateral direction” in line 14 lacks clear antecedent basis and could be written as –a lateral direction—for clarity.

Re claim 3, it is noted the claim should end in a period.

3. Claims 1-3 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action. It should be noted, the instant claim 1 is deemed allowable over applicant's admitted prior art of figures 5A and 5B (hereinafter referred to as “Kato”) in as much as Kato is not deemed to define a footrest with lengths “equal to or slightly shorter” relative to workpiece (i.e. the vehicle floor) hole dimensions as recited by applicant.

Art Unit: 3612

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Note at least Dendo et al teaches a footrest including securing clip assemblies.
